

Hello, I read that Pappas Telecasting
is giving away
airtime to Republican candidates in California.

I thought the public
airwaves were allocated to companies in exchange for at least some semblance
of public service.
This sounds like an abuse of that privilege.

It seems you should not automatically
renew their license -
this bears looking into.

Thank you for your time.
